

“The Colors of Winter”

An exhibit by the artists of Spindleworks, an art center located in Brunswick. Spindleworks is a program of the Independence Association whose mission is to support children and adults with disabilities to achieve full and inclusive lives.

“The Colors of Winter” provides a glimpse of the wide variety of artwork from Spindleworks including painting, drawing, ceramics, sculpture, weaving, and fiber arts. The Spindleworks artists are widely known and well respected members of Maine’s artistic community.

On exhibit from: March 3 – 31, 2011

Thornton Oaks
Retirement Community

25 Thornton Way, Brunswick